

CAMPAIGN DO'S AND DON'TS

DURING A REGULAR OR SPECIAL SESSION MAY I . . . ?

Yes, You May...

- Spend Campaign Funds
- Use a photo or electronic file, produced with state resources, for campaign purposes
- Legislative employees only: Include your name on a fundraiser for a federal candidate.
- Legislative employees only: Attend fundraiser for a federal candidate
- Attend a political party event
- Donate money at a political party event
- Legislative employees only: Participate in activities including party fundraisers.
- Fill out candidate questionnaires
- Endorse a local municipal candidate
- Endorse an electrical co-op board candidate or local utility board candidate
- Run for local municipal office (but not on state time)

No, You May Not...

- Solicit, accept, or receive campaign funds
- Legislators Only: Donate an item for auction at a political event
- Legislative employees only: File a "Letter of Intent", or "Affidavit of Candidacy" for state office. You must resign your position prior to filing.
- Solicit campaign contributions for a municipal candidate, electrical co-op board candidate or utility board candidate
- Use a legislative Facebook page for soliciting campaign funds or for other campaign activities

© Can Stock Photo

AT ANYTIME, MAY I . . . ?

Yes, You May...

- Use your constituent database for personal and campaign purposes (AO 04-01)
- Add names from a campaign mailing list to a constituent mailing list (current district only)
- Use campaign photos for legislative communications with all campaign references removed
- Wear a name tag with your title when campaigning, but no state funds involved.
- Have campaign bumper stickers on a vehicle parked in an LIO parking lot

No, You May Not...

- Combine a State-funded trip with campaign activities.
- Travel on the office allowance account and attend political party meetings on that trip
- Present a legislative citation at your own fundraiser
- Hand out Legislative business cards while campaigning